Flash Video

A Brainshark presentation is a flash video. All of the images, text, and videos which are imported into Brainshark are converted into Flash. If you cannot see the visual, you may need to update the flash version on your computer.

Brainshark has created a document for our Minimum System Requirements to view a Brainshark Presentation. Please reference this document to see what version of Flash is needed.

To see what version of flash you have please go to: <http://www.brainshark.com/systemcheck>

This will test components of your computer Brainshark needs in order to play successfully. You need to have a green checkmark in the left hand column for all of the components. Brainshark also provides a link to Adobe where you can update your flash player for free.
